

Curriculum vitae

Éva Mónika Takács dr.

I studied medicine at the Semmelweis University Budapest, finished in 2005. I started as a PRM trainee at 2007 and I had a maternity leave between 2010-2014. Finally in 2017nI passed my specialty exam and the European Board Exam of Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine. During my trainee program I had the opportunity to do scholarships in Sao Paulo, Brasil, then UCL Brussels. I also did the Online Course on Extracorporeal Shock Wave Therapy organized by the European PRM College. I have been working at the National Institute for Medical Rehabilitation in Budapest for six years. I work on a rehabilitaion ward of patients with different ethiology, eg.stroke and other neurologic disorders, muscoloskeletal disorders and patients with lymphedema.