

Reynaldo R. Rey-Matias MD, MSHMS

Dr. Rey Matias had his BS Physical Therapy at University of Santo Tomas College of Rehabilitation Sciences (then Institute of Physical Therapy) and Doctor of Medicine from the University of Santo Tomas Faculty of Medicine and Surgery. He was the Chairman of the Professional Regulation Commission - Board of Physical and Occupational Therapy from 2007-2013.

He had his residency training in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation at the University of the Philippines- Philippine General Hospital. He is currently the Chairman and Associate Professor of the St Luke's College of Medicine - Department of Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine and a Clinical Associate Professor of the University of the Philippines- College of Medicine. He is a diplomate of the Philippine Board of Rehabilitation Medicine, the Philippine Board of Pain Medicine , Fellow of the Cardiac Rehabilitation Society of the Philippines and a Fellow of the Philippine College of Geriatric Medicine. He finished his Masteral degree in Human Movement Sciences from the University of the Philippines.

He had several awards and the latest is the US Association of Academic Physiatrist Impact on Education and Excellence award , He is the Distinguished Thomasian Award University of Santo Tomas Alumni Association in 2018 , Most Outstanding Pearl Jubilarian - University of Santo Tomas Alumni Association in America in 2018 , Most Outstanding Alumni – University of Santo Tomas College of Rehabilitation Sciences in 2014, Top 100 doctors, St Luke's Medical Center in 2012, No. 1 Doctor in Rehabilitation Medicine St Luke's Medical Center Global City in 2011-2012, Faculty Leadership Achievement Award - University of the Philippines College of Medicine in 2012 , Award of Recognition as Distinguished Speaker - St. Luke's Medical Center in 2010 and the University of the Philippines Diliman College of Human Kinetics – Gawad Kinetika Award for Best thesis in 2007.

Dr. Rey-Matias is currently the President of the Asian Oceanian Society of Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine, Chairman of International Society of Prosthetics and Orthotics- Philippines, the Vice President of the Pain Society of the Philippines. Vice President - External of the Cardiac Rehabilitation Society of the Philippines, the Philippine Society of Neurorehabilitaion. and the Pain Society of the Philippines.