

Klemen Grabljevec, MD

Klemen Grabljevec MD is a specialist of Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine and Head of department for rehabilitation after acquired brain injury at National University Rehabilitation Institute in Ljubljana, where he also serves as the Head Deputy for clinical affairs.

From March 2023, he is President of the European Society of Physical and Rehabilitation medicine and member of the Executive Board of the Mediterranean Forum for Physical and rehabilitation medicine. His field of interest is therapy of focal and generalized spasticity, as well ultrasound guided soft tissue interventions.