

Verónica Silvana Matassa. MD, MSc. Prof.

She is a doctor at the University of Buenos Aires (UBA). She completed her residency and was Chief Resident of the Rehabilitation Hospital of the City of Buenos Aires in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation. He worked as a Pharmacology teacher at the UBA and as an auditor at the National Ministry of Health of Argentina. She was a clinical researcher at Htal Tornu and a staff doctor at the Public Rehabilitation Hospital. She did Pain's Fellow IASP at Sao Paulo University, and a postgraduate auditing in rehabilitation. She is Master in comprehensive approach to spasticity from the University of Salamanca, Master in Principles and practices of conservative treatment of scoliosis, ISICO. She did a Postgraduate in Principles of Clinical Pharmacology at NHI-USA and Diploma in cannabis and its uses, National University Arturo Jaureche, Argentina. She was General Secretary at Argentinian Association for Study of Pain and was President of the Argentine Congress of Pain 2015. She was Samfyr's President (2020-2022) and President at the 26th Argentine Congress of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation and II Congress of the Latin American Scientific Society of Rehabilitation (SOCILAR) 2023 . She is currently Director of the University Postgraduate program Physiatriac and interventional management of Pain under Ultrasound Guidance, Medical Director of the Rehabilitation Center San Juan de Dios Argentina, Redes and Cari Children's Rehabilitation centers. Member of the Board of Directors of Samfyr, Member of the Board of Directors of ALME-SLAP, Member of the executive committee of ISPRM, Representatives Latin America of the individual partners in ISPRM. Member of the editorial committee of Samfyr, foreign reviewer of the Colombian Magazine and the Mexican MP&R Magazine. President of SOCILAR.